St. Joseph, Pray for Us

April 24, 2022

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Bible Verse for April 24: Col. 3:14-15
Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body.

Stewardship Reflection:

"Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.""
(John 20:21)

Peace - the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world, so too, He sends us. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be compassionate and merciful; and not with just those who are our friends, but also with your "enemies." Think of someone in your life who you need to reconcile with. Call them right now or better yet, go visit them.

Into the Deep - St. Catherine of Siena - Medieval Woman, Model for us Today: Catherine of Siena, a Dominican Saint emerging out of the late Medieval Period, embodies the sanctity we are called to live today. How was St. Catherine's prophetic commitment to the Church possible in the midst of the politico-religious divisions of the 14th century? What does this courageous Saint teach us about holiness in today's world? Friday, April 29 at 7:00pm. Learn more at beholdvancouver.org/events

Milestone Marriage Anniversary Mass: Sunday, May 8, 2022: the Archdiocese of Vancouver will be honouring couples celebrating milestone marriage anniversaries in 5-year increments from 5-60 years, and every year beyond 60 years at the annual Milestone Marriage Anniversary Mass. You're invited to register to celebrate your milestone marriage anniversary with Mass at 2:00pm at St. Clare of Assisi Parish followed by a reception. Families and friends are welcome to witness and celebrate your milestone anniversary. Learn more and register at family.rcav.org/mam.

Where Am I Most Alive? Ignatian Retreat, Part I: Pray with Ignatius of Loyola to identify your deepest desires and how God animates your life. This retreat is available for people who wish to lodge onsite, commute daily or participate by Zoom. This weekend retreat will explore the life and wisdom of Ignatius of Loyola and engage some of the essential prayer methods he popularized in the Spiritual Exercises. Learning how to pray with these tools will help you begin to discern where you are most alive and where and how God animates your life. This retreat is geared for people new to Ignatian spirituality as well as those who wish to dive deeper into their experience of the Exercises and anyone in between who may be discerning the next steps in their life. We will follow a rhythm of inspiring talks, silent time for individual prayer, small group spiritual conversation, and breaks offering fresh food and plenty of time to rest and explore the lake, gardens, and grounds of the retreat centre. Friday, May 13 to Sunday, May 15. Learn more and register at beholdvancouver.org/events

St. Monica's Mission Holy Hour: Many parents are grieving the loss of their adult child's faith in the Catholic Church. This Year of the Family is an ideal time of grace for parents to pray, fast, and sacrifice for their adult children's conversion. Through St. Monica's Mission, A Prayerful Journey of Perseverance and Hope, parents are invited to join our monthly Holy Hours on the Third Friday of the month at various parishes across the Archdiocese. Friday, May 20 at 6:30pm. Learn more at beholdvancouver.org/events
